Dear Mr. Li,

I would like to thank you for your kindness in conducting an in-gallery discussion for our in-service teachers during your calligraphy exhibition here at the de Young Museum.

We have enjoyed great success with "The Art World as It Serves the School," as the teachers have found these individual presentations of current exhibitions both interesting and enriching. Yours was a particularly valuable experience for our group because of the personal insight gained by listening to the artist himself.

Thank you again, Mr. Li, for allowing us this unique experience.

Sincerely,

Mrs. George T. Brady, Jr.
First Vice-Chairman
Docent Council of the de Young Museum
